MEMORANDUM ON OBJECTS OF EMPLOYMENT SERVICES BILL, 2012

1. BACKGROUND

1.1 The Employment Services Bill (the Bill) seeks to repeal all the employment services provisions contained in the Skills Development Act, 1998 (Act No. 97 of 1998), as well as those provisions establishing Productivity South Africa. These provisions are incorporated into the Bill and strengthened in order to provide a re-invigorated legal basis for the provision of public employment services.

1.2 The Department of Labour (the Department) conducted a review of its programmes to determine their effectiveness and to make appropriate adjustments, with the assistance of the International Labour Organisation (ILO). A comparative study was also conducted across Ministries of Labour/Labour and Social Affairs/Labour and Employment with similar characteristics and in countries having similar economic conditions with South Africa. The outcome of these discussions resulted in the Department prioritising the following three areas: Inspection and Enforcement Services, Labour Policy and Industrial Relations and Public Employment Services, inclusive of the Unemployment Insurance Fund and the Compensation Fund. All of these programmes are supported by the programme administration. The Bill seeks to allow for the re-organisation of public employment services in line with these priorities.

1.3 The Bill seeks to contribute to the government's objectives of "More jobs, decent work and sustainable livelihoods". The Bill repositions public employment services to play a major role in employment promotion and employment preservation and will also assist employers and workers to adapt to changing labour market conditions.

1.4 The Bill seeks to, amongst other things, contribute towards—

- reducing unemployment and inequalities and poverty eradication;
- promoting and preserving employment;
- reducing work seeker reliance on the Unemployment Insurance Fund or Social Security grants, and reliance of rehabilitated workers injured on duty on the Compensation Fund;
- accelerating employment creation; and
- employment growth and productivity promotion.

1.5 The strategic objectives will be achieved through institutional arrangements that the Department will further establish to provide free services to citizens, such as registration of job seekers, registering of placement opportunities, matching services, referral to training, and careers information. The private employment agencies will be entitled to charge employers for providing similar services, in accordance with regulations and ILO Conventions.

1.6 In addition, the Bill allows the Minister of Labour (the Minister) to issue regulations requiring employers to register vacancies in specified categories of work. The Bill further permits the Minister to introduce schemes to promote the employment of unemployed work seekers, to assist employees facing retrenchment to remain in employment, and to promote the rehabilitation and re-entry into employment of employees injured on duty or who have contracted an occupational disease.

1.7 The Minister can also introduce regulations dealing with the employment of foreign nationals so as to protect the conditions of employment of South African citizens and permanent residents, in case of employment of foreign workers. The Department will collaborate with a number of players and bodies already functioning within employment services to achieve its objectives.
